OUR JOURNEY

Look at what YOU have accomplished so far, West Michigan!

2002

Kids' Food Basket began serving 125 meals at three schools in Grand Rapids in response to an unmet need. The organization was founded to provide a direct service - nutritious, ready-to-eat meals - to the 1 in 5 local children affected by hunger.

2005

Kids' Food Basket made its first major move from Monroe Ave to Butterworth Street, and, with a larger space, began serving more children.

2009

1900%

With the help of LEAN experts and many passionate community members, Kids' Food Basket grew to serve over 2,500 students a day, a 1900% increase from 2002!

2012

Kids' Food Basket's Muskegon program launches! Our Muskegon program has grown to serve over 900 children at three schools!

2010

What a big year! Kids' Food Basket moved its headquarters to its current home at 2055 Oak Industrial Drive, met President Obama to accept an award for our founder, Mary K. Hoodhood, and won the Governor's Service Award for Volunteer Program of the Year!

2014

Thanks to our community, Kids' Food Basket won two big awards: Grand Rapids' Area Chamber of Commerce EPIC Award for Nonprofit of the Year and MiBiz's Best Managed Nonprofit Award for Excellence in Fundraising.

2015

Kids' Food Basket's Holland program launches and begins serving 600 children at two schools!

1,000,000 MEALS!

2016

We announced our new strategic plan (www.KidsFoodBasket.org/StrategicPlan) and celebrated the milestone of serving over 1,000,000 meals in one school year in West Michigan!

HELP A CHILD LIVE AND LEARN WELL JOIN THE SACK SUPPER CLUB

What can one dollar do? Just one dollar each weekday ($20 monthly) allows you to sponsor a local child affected by hunger for an entire year. Together we can ensure lunch is not the last meal of the day for kids in our community.

Each Sack Supper contains brain food, healthy food from the five food groups which helps kids concentrate and stay on track in school. These well-balanced meals teach healthy habits, instilling smart food choices to support good health lifelong. Each Sack Supper is made with a touch of love by people like YOU whose involvement and dedication help kids thrive.

Join the Sack Supper Club in August or September, and your year-long commitment of $240 will be matched by a generous donor. Visit kidsfoodbasket.org/SackSupperClub for more information on how you can nourish kids in the year ahead.

Thank you for the amazing Sack Suppers. They help me have a fresh mind! -Hannah

Community Partner Shout Out!

We are so grateful for the Community Foundation of the Holland/Zeeland Area. They initially joined the attack on childhood hunger when they made a three year grant commitment to help launch Kids' Food Basket in Holland, and continue to support our mission to ensure local children are receiving proper nutrition so they can thrive.

"The Community Foundation is proud to be a partner in bringing Kids' Food Basket's Sack Supper program to Holland," Community Foundation President/CEO, Mike Goorhouse, said. "Since launching last year, more than 500 hungry children in our community now leave school every day with a Sack Supper in hand that gives them the nutrition they need to grow and learn to their full potential. We are excited about the lasting positive impact this will create for them at home, at school, and in life."

I'm amazed when I look back on our journey. It's inspiring to see where we've been and where we're going! As many of you know, I began my journey with Kids' Food Basket as an intern for my senior capstone project at Aquinas College. My advisor at the time, George Heartwell (who would go on to be Grand Rapids' Mayor!), recommended me to his friend Mary K. Hoodhood, who was starting a feeding program for kids, and had $3,000 in funding.

Kudos from BRIDGET

Our journey has been challenging, but successful because of your support. The numbers of local children living in poverty has continued to rise through our years of service, and we have grown to respond to the need. We've also continued to grow because of the significant impact we've made together. For nearly 15 years, we've served nutritious, ready-to-eat Sack Suppers directly to children, ensuring they have the nutrition they need to learn and live well. That's such an important achievement. We've learned that consistent access to good nutrition makes a tremendous difference for teachers and schools. Matt Houseman is the Dean of Students & Safety Advocate at Nelson Elementary School, where we began serving last fall. Matt recently shared the incredible impact that Sack Suppers have made in his school:

In 2015 we had 197 referrals, which is a formal write-up, and 91 suspensions, the majority of which were happening in the last two hours of the school day. In those last two hours, students' behavior just dissolved. We couldn't figure it out.

Fast forward to now. We're at the end of the school year, and we've only had 70 write-ups and 13 suspensions. That's a 64% decrease in referrals, and an 86% decrease in suspensions. And it's largely because of the Sack Suppers. These kids have so many things to worry about. Knowing that a Sack Supper is coming gives them a sense of security, and for many of our kids, that means everything.

We know that our Sack Supper program makes a direct, immediate, and lasting impact. Over the years, we've also learned that it's important to look at and address childhood hunger holistically. We serve thousands of children, and there are thousands of reasons why. We've developed innovative programming - like our Kids Helping Kids civic engagement education series and our urban farming initiatives - to attack childhood hunger more deeply, so that young people have the best chance at succeeding in school and in life.

We also know that we couldn't do this work without each and every one of YOU! Childhood hunger is an issue that weakens our whole community. Ending it is only possible when the effort includes our entire community as well. As a community-driven, 100% charitably-funded organization, we are endlessly grateful for the hundreds of community members who come together each day to ensure that children in West Michigan have what they need to thrive. You are the chief heroes in this critical work. We are honored to host you.

Peace,
P.S. We hope you'll join us for Brown Bag Decorating Day on Saturday, October 22! Every decorated bag is a gift to a child we serve. Learn more:
